		{14} When the hour came, he took his place at the table, and the apostles with him. {15} He said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer; {16} for I tell you, I will not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."
		{17} Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves; {18} for I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

			(1 Cor 10:16 NRSV) The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a sharing in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ?	(John 13:1-6 NRSV) Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. {2} The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper {3} Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, {4} got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. {5} Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. {6} He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"
		{21} But see, the one who betrays me is with me, and his hand is on the table. {22} For the Son of Man is going as it has been determined, but woe to that one by whom he is betrayed!" {23} Then they began to ask one another, which one of them it could be who would do this. {24} A dispute also arose among them as to which one of them was to be regarded as the greatest. {25} But he said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over

		them; and those in authority over them are called benefactors. {26} But not so with you; rather the greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the leader like one who serves. {27} For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one at the table? But I am among you as one who serves. {28} "You are those who have stood by me in my trials; {29} and I confer on you, just as my Father has conferred on me, a kingdom, {30} so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. {31} "Simon, Simon, listen! Satan has demanded to sift all of you like wheat, {32} but I have prayed for you that your own faith may not fail; and you, when once you have turned back, strengthen your brothers." {33} And he said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death!" {34} Jesus said, "I tell you, Peter, the cock will not crow this day, until you have denied three times that you know me." {35} He said to them, "When I sent you out without a purse, bag, or sandals, did you lack anything?" They said, "No, not a thing." {36} He said to them, "But now, the one who has a purse must take it, and likewise a bag. And the one who has no sword must sell his cloak and buy one. {37} For I tell you, this scripture must be fulfilled in me, 'And he was counted among the lawless'; and indeed what is written about me is being fulfilled." {38} They said, "Lord, look, here are two swords." He replied, "It is enough."

{30} When they had sung the hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.	{26} When they had sung the hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. {27} And Jesus said to them, "You will all become deserters; for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'" {28} But after I am raised up, I will go before you to Galilee." {29} Peter said to him, "Even though all become deserters, I will not." {30} Jesus said to him, "Truly I tell you, this day, this very night, before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times." {31} But he said vehemently, "Even though I must die with you, I will not deny you." And all of them said the same.	{39} He came out and went, as was his custom, to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples followed him.		(John 18:1 NRSV) After Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples across the Kidron valley to a place where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered.
