Church Spotlight-The Watson Family

Martha and Larry have a son Daniel, who is a senior at Rice University and a daughter Stephanie, who is a sophomore at ACU. Daniel and Stephanie were born, raised and baptized in this congregation. Martha and Larry are part of multi-generational families at Southwest Central: Martha's mother, Marcia Hunter, and Larry's mother, Edith Watson, are also members of our church.

Martha is a bilingual second grade teacher in HISD and Larry is a purchasing manager for Gulf Pacific Rice.

Apart from their involvement in various ministries with Southwest Central, Larry enjoys music and spectator sports – especially Rice baseball – and Martha enjoys gardening.

Both Larry and Martha were raised in faithful Christian families and were baptized as teenagers at their hometown churches – Martha in St. Louis by her grand father, Dr. John Cayce, and Larry in Monahans (TX). Martha came to Houston upon her graduation from David Lipscomb University to teach. Larry came to Houston to attend Rice University. They met as young singles at the Central Church, where they were married.

Southwest Central is a vital passion for Larry. He is captivated by our vision and eager to be part of fulfilling our mission. He recognizes the powerful presence of the Holy Spirit among this loving and gifted body and feels blessed to be part of such a unique family. Martha feels the church is a place where we teach about Jesus' love whether by words or action.
