Church Spotlight-Dee Pipes

Dee was born in Liberty, Texas and lived there growing up. She also lived in Austin, Texas; Las Vegas, Nevada; and Talara, Peru before coming to Houston to attend Rice University. Dee met her husband of over 31 years, Bryan, in sophomore math class. She has a BA in English. Bryan and Dee dated while at Rice, attended Central Church of Christ, and married there in 1978. As a young couple they left Central and came to Southwest around 1981, before the merger.

Dee worked in the computer industry for many years, and currently runs a consulting company, And Take Names, Inc. She also writes mystery novels with a writing partner, Charles Yates, with the pen name of Dee Wilbur. They have two novels published and are working on a third. Dee and Bryan have two wonderful “nephews” that the Lord sent them, Joseph Niles and Damon Easter, to complete their family. Dee’s vision for Southwest Central involves working the tasks the Lord has given us while learning more about and growing in the Lord. With her brother-in-law David, Dee teaches an adult Sunday school class, Grace Explores, who are currently exploring the Psalms. She would like to take ESL, Espanola Sequenda Lengua, and just knows that someone reading this wants to teach her.

Ballot Proposition #4 From Steve Sandifer

When you go to the polls to vote in the March primary election, you will also vote on several state propositions. One of those is:

BALLOT PROPOSITION #4: PUBLIC ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF GOD

The use of the word "God", prayers, and the Ten Commandments should be allowed at public gatherings and public educational institutions, as well as be permitted on government buildings and property.

I am sure that if this passes it will be tested in the courts, but it is a way for citizens to show their approval or disapproval of such things in the public arena. Those of you with internet are encouraged to search on-line for a sample ballot so that your voting can be informed on all of the races and issues.
